

SHOCK TROOPS... A one-night blitzkrieg of Torrance curbs and sidewalks was staged here Tuesday night by members of the Torrance Junior Chamber of Commerce, Armed with paint, daubers, and stencils, the Jaycees covered most of the downtown area stenciling reminders to Torrance citizens to vote in the municipal elections next Tuesday.

LOCAL DEBUT... Members of the Torrance Mounted Police, who have been collecting ribbons all over Southern California during participation in various parades, made their debut in Torrance last Monday while riding color for the Clyde Beatty Circus Parade through downtown Torrance. The uniformed troupe has been organized for about a year.

Taken over for arraignment yesterday, Acosta was held over until this morning so an interpreter could be on hand in the courtroom. He speaks no English.

Death of the two at the busy intersection Saturday night brought the city's traffic toll in 1954 to four.

cept Shidler's resignation Tuesday, Mrs. Grace Wright, vice-president, took the chair. New Board officers will be elected at the following election.

Shidler Tribute Given Members of the Board paid tribute to Judge Shidler for his years of service to the Torrance Unified School District and expressed great regret that he has found it necessary to resign. Shidler had served on the Board of Education since 1949 and was concluding his second term as president. He was born in York, Neb., and attended school in Torrance and Redondo Beach.

In 1941 he was appointed Torrance City Judge. Later he served as Justice of the Peace of Gardena Township and judge in the Gardena Justice Court. In January of 1952, he became Judge of the newly-formed South Bay Justice Court and was re-elected in the '52 primaries.

Vanderhill children are feeling spring in their bones this week as Sharon Herbst gave a party for her classmates in school. Attending the affair were Dennis Berry, Richard Powell, Jackie Larkins, Betty Lou Mahon, Carol Bledsoe, Pat Vint, Leslie Hinkle, Valeria Forello, Lois Rush, Sharon Brousseau, Bobetta Holstein, Gene Devor, Jeff Nauman, Earnest Thomsen, and Diana Nelson. Girls attending the slumber party after the evening of partying for the classroom were Carol Bledsoe, Bobetta Holstein, Pat Vint, Leslie Hinkle, and the hostess, Sharon Herbst. Reports are that the children enjoyed a wonderful evening.

Another girl from this area to be confirmed last Sunday was Dorothy Bellehaumeur of Macafee Rd. Wearing her beautiful gift of a white dress trimmed with tiny seed pearls around the neckline and pockets, and a coronet of red flowers over the white net, shoulder length veil, Dorothy was confirmed in Manhattan Beach at the American Martyrs Church, along with about 200 others. Her sponsor was Mrs. Selma Rock by proxy. Confirming the children was His Excellency, Bishop McCluckten. At the reception before the confirmation the family gathered around the dinner table for ham and the trimmings. Attending were Mrs. Ida Bellehaumeur, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Rock, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Berry and daughter, Christine, Alexander Bellehaumeur Jr., and dad and mom, Alex Sr. and Dorothy.

We are very sorry to report that we have lost a good neighbor from Zakon Rd. They are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Thorne and son Charles, who have been living here almost since the Heights was first built. The good part of this news, though, is that Ed and Peg haven't moved to awfully far away, for they now reside at 22914 Ladene Ave. in Victoria Terrace. We know we will see you often, Peg, so keep the coffee pot on the stove.

on Zakon are Mr. and Mrs. Ricky Combs and children. Ricky has just finished his term with Uncle Sam and is very happy to be home. We welcome Dorothy, as she lived here most of the time hubby was in service.

Under the capable direction of Johnny Newborn, the Seaside Elementary Glee Club and band has made several appearances in other schools. Their programs are about a half-hour long and include some of the old songs—as well as all the popular tunes of the day.

Lloyd Jones, assistant principal of Seaside Elementary, reported yesterday morning that kindergarten enrollment is now in progress and that parents who plan to enter kiddies for the fall classes should notify the school office immediately. Things to know about entering a child in kindergarten are: (1) The child must be five years of age on or before Dec. 1, (2) the child's birth certificate must be handy at the time of enrollment. At the present time all address of the child. The school will contact the parents later for more specific data.

Welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lane, who are new residents of the Seaside Heights. Bill and family live on Doris Way. Another Doris Way family just moved in are Mr. and Mrs. Varley and two sons, J. G. and David. Hope that both families will be happy and satisfied with and in their new homes.

Mrs. Phyllis Kincannon, sixth grade teacher of Seaside Elementary, has expressed the wish that more of the parents of her students would attend the Fri-

Drain Work Hits Lomita Streets

Storm drain construction in Lomita will cause sections of some streets to be closed during the next ten months, according to the County Road Department. Due are temporary closings along Lomita Blvd. between Normandie and Narbonne Aves.; Pennsylvania Ave. between 250th and 248th Sts.; and 248th St. between Pennsylvania and Eshelman Aves. Two lanes will be kept open along Narbonne Ave. and one lane each will be open along Cypress, Walnut and Eshelman Aves. None of the closings will be for more than a few weeks.

San Pedro Man Hurt in Crash

A San Pedro man was slightly injured late yesterday afternoon when his car smashed into a tree near 203rd St. and Western Ave. The driver, Walter Wohlers, was southbound on Western Ave. at about 5:30 p.m. when his car went out of control, jumped the dividing strip, veered across the opposite lanes and hit the tree, spinning completely around after the collision. Wohlers was alone in the car.
